

Interview with Susan S. Phillips, Ph.D.
Live 60-minute Video Conference

Spiritual World Net
Nurturing Your Walk with Others

Introduction:

Susan S. Phillips (Ph.D.) is a sociologist as well as a spiritual director. She has been the Executive Director of New College Berkeley since 1994.

Susan did her doctoral studies at U.C. Berkeley, privileged to study with Robert Bellah, Guy Swanson, John Clausen, Richard Lazarus, Gertrude Jaeger, Michael Burowoy, Arlie Hochschild, and other scholars whose academic work is saturated with their interest in what it means to live a good life.

Her writing—including the CHOICE Award-winning book The Crisis of Care: Affirming and Restoring Caring Practices in the Helping Professions (with Patricia Benner, Georgetown, 1994) and Candlelight: Illuminating the Art of Spiritual Direction (Morehouse, 2008)—and teaching are in these areas.

Currently, Susan teaches regularly for NCB, the Graduate Theological Union, Fuller Theological Seminary (Northern California), San Francisco Theological Seminary (the program in the Diploma in the Art of Spiritual Direction), Regent College (Canada), in addition to occasional lectures and retreat-leading for churches and organizations. She serves on the GTU faculty (serving on doctoral committees), as part of the clinical faculty at the School of Nursing of the University of California at San Francisco, on Regent College's Board of Governors, and on the editorial boards of Radix and Presence magazines.

Candlelight: Illuminating the Art of Spiritual Direction
by Susan S. Phillips, Ph.D.

"Illuminating is the precisely accurate word for this brilliant evocation of spiritual direction in action. If I were permitted only one book on spiritual direction, this would be it."
—Eugene H. Peterson, author of The Message and Professor Emeritus of Spiritual Theology, Regent College, Vancouver, B.C.

Format:

We will meet for 60 minutes. The interview with the author will be 30 minutes followed by a 30-minute Q&A.
